

Catholic school leadership is rewarding, challenging and fulfilling. Being a beginning Catholic school leader has a unique learning curve unlike any other school leadership position. This academy's goal is to shorten the learning curve and build a knowledge base to make the principal's role as rewarding as it should be.

PRINCIPAL'S ACADEMY

Research shows that high quality school leadership matters. Having an administrator that understands Catholic school leadership at the helm of our schools can influence instructional practices and student outcomes in significant ways. The New Principal Academy aims to grow Catholic school leaders' skills in culture and instruction, helping leaders to align their decisions to the needs of their students, teachers, school, and communities.

Who: Catholic School Principal who is new to the role - could be a first year principal or third, you decide if you are new!
