

NCEA Announces the Release of the Student Data Handbook for Elementary, Secondary, and Early Childhood Education: 2000 Edition

The Handbook was developed to provide guidance concerning the consistent maintenance of student information. This handbook is useful to public and private education agencies, schools, early childhood centers and other educational institutions. This handbook is not, however, a data collection instrument; nor does it reflect any type of federal data maintenance requirements. It is presented as a tool to help the public and the American school system make information about students more useful and effective in meeting student needs.

Data elements are presented in nine areas: personal information, enrollment, school participation and activities, nonschool and post-school experience, assessment, transportation, health conditions, special program participation and student support services, and discipline.

CSAANYS NEW BROOKLYN/QUEENS REPRESENTATIVE

The new representative for the Brooklyn/Queens Secondary schools is Dr. Robert Muccigrosso, principal at Nazareth High School in Brooklyn.

Welcome Dr. Muccigrosso!

A WARM WELCOME TO OUR NEW DIRECTOR

Sr. M. Catharine Ryan, CSJ joined CSAANYS as the new Director on July 1st. She brings with her a wealth of experience in Catholic Education.

She comments, "I had the privilege of a complete Catholic School Education in grade and high school at St. John's in Plattsburgh, NY; in Bachelor and Master's programs at The College of St. Rose in Albany, NY; in a Doctoral Program at the University of Notre Dame in South Bend, IND". She taught in several secondary schools and served in faculty and administrative positions at The College of St. Rose. She also served as Area Superintendent of the Broome County Catholic Schools in the Diocese of Syracuse, NY.

Catholic School Education is my life! "It is my hope that I can be a strong advocate for you in the state and federal legislature and that I can assist you in every way possible as you work toward a Jubilee year in Catholic Education. Please call! Let me know your concerns and questions.

Blessings as you launch the 2000-2001 school year!
